WEDNESDAY, 6/25

Bob Root reports that it started out overcast but improved throughout the day. There were 9 flights.

SATURDAY, 6/28

John Murray prepares to give guest, Carol, the experience of soaring.

With low clouds and 30% chance of scattered showers it was decided to pull out only CC and 15H. Cleaning the bugs from CC kept the crew busy between flights.

A small rain shower came through at 2 pm and a larger band was moving in, so the crew finished up the day early with 7 flights, including two training flights for Joey.

Thanks to Chuck Lohre for reporting and pictures for this and the next 3 articles.

GREAT IDEA

Two “Glider Rides” signs that have been at the intersection of Gard and Elbon Roads for the past few weeks were found on the picnic table at the east end of the field. The 4th Saturday Crew put them up along Elbon Road and then had the idea to apply lettering to the left side of the trailer as shown in the illustration. Great idea! Let’s get it implemented.

HENRY MEYERROSE SHARES MEMORIES ABOUT GLIDER CLUB IN GERMANY

Henry Meyerrose shares stories of his German glider club

Henry brought the album that his club, Luftsportverein lingen e.V, created in 1991 in celebration of its 40th anniversary and shared some of his fondest memories about his early flying experiences.

WHERE IS JOE JACKSON?

Beer thirty came early on Saturday so all could get out of the weather and hear about Joe Jackson's adventures with his newly purchased MacGregor 26 sailboat.

DO YOU HAVE A GOPRO CAMERA?

Brian Stoops is attempting to shoot a video that we can use on the web site and elsewhere to promote soaring and CCSC, in particular. If you are willing to loan him your GoPro please let Brian know at eagleyez45<at>yahoo.com. Brian will be joined in this effort by Kevin Wolf, a Student member, who has been in Los Angeles attending college, studying filming and movie-making. Brian and Kevin will be engaged in this effort during Youth Camp. Kevin wants to film Youth Camp as his senior project with the hope of capturing the excitement and joy that are his fond memories from prior years.

WHAT ABOUT THE CLUB MEMBERS SEARCHING FOR BETTER SOARING OUT WEST?

From the OLC scores it appears that Joe Simmers, Jim Marks and Dan Reagan are flying from Nephi, UT. This week there is a XC Camp for 50 gliders taking place at Nephi, which is advertised as a "fantastic soaring location, right in the heart of both mountain and great basin flying." Prior to that Dan spent a few days at Parowan to get acimated. What is it like guys?

LONG RANGE PLANNING

A joint meeting of the CCSC and SSD boards is scheduled for July 12 to initiate a study of factors affecting the health of the club and to formulate of plans for the future.
