CALENDAR OF UPCOMING EVENTS

Nov 5 Board of Directors Meeting - 9:30 am - John Lubon

CONGRATULATIONS ZACH SIEFKER - COMMERCIAL PILOT

Zach Siefker is in the center receiving a congratulatory handshake from examiner Bob Miller with tow pilot Tony Bonser on the left. Zach completed his commercial check ride Sunday (10-16-16) on a windy day. This is a little over a year after getting his private license. Thanks to the third Sunday crew for all the help and congratulations to Zach.

SATURDAY WAS NEIGHBOR APPRECIATION DAY AND OKTOBERFEST

Although the wind was a bit brisk and generated some turbulence along the tree line a good number of neighbors came out to enjoy the warm sun and pleasant temperatures. Guests with gift certificates or cash came for Introductory Flights as well. The Third Saturday Crew was kept busy all day.

Many neighbors came out to enjoy a free glider flight.

Micah Ferguson took a brief break from his crew duties to fly with Rich Carraway and take advantage of the free flight for Youth Camp participants who serve on a crew. Gary Adams is ready to run the wing once the tow pilot responds to his launch signal.

New member Casey Keilbarth is welcomed by Maury Drummey. Casey is currently stationed at WPAFB and has prior powered and glider flight experience with the Air Force. Be sure to welcome Casey when you see him.

SUNDAY WAS WINDY- BRIAN STOOPS

The flying activity on Sunday was questionable at the start. After analyzing the winds at the field, it was decided to wait a while to see if they would subside. The winds were S-SW at 15 to 20 mph and higher at times. Tony Bonser did a flight in 33Z and said it was bumpy below 1000 feet, and smoother above. So we started launching gliders at about 11:30. The first flights were flown by Zach Siefker... after his 3 take-offs and landings he became our newest Commercial Pilot. Congrats to Zach. After completing the paperwork, Bob Miller came back out and provided flight instruction, since the crew is short of instructors. With his help we had a total of 10 flights, so extra thanks to Bob Miller.-Brian

There was very good participation in the Pot Luck Dinner on Saturday evening with 55 attending. The mets, brats, German potato salad, sauerkraut and German beer provided the Oktoberfest flavors as did many of the wonderful side dishes and desserts which participants brought to share.

Guest speaker, Jim "Pee Wee" Martin, shown here standing with white hair and no cap, provided his personal memories of parachuting into northern France as part of the D-Day invasion.

MISSING PVC PARTS

One of the crews cleaned up the workshop in the old barn and did a great job, but now I am missing some PCV parts. Please email me or call at 937-776-4508. Thanks, Bob Miller.
