

Registration for Youth Education Week

Caesar Creek Youth Soaring Association, Inc.

2020 camp: July 12, starting 3:00 pm through July 17, 6:00 pm

Purpose:

To develop the mind and character of interested youth by providing technical, scientific and business education through participation in the sport of soaring.

Focus:

- Personal growth through goal setting and achievement of goals
- Leadership – on and off the flying field
- Responsibility – taking responsibility for your actions
- Community – pitching in and supporting yourself and others around you
- Preparedness – value of planning and being prepared for expected and unexpected events
- Respect – having respect for yourself, others and equipment

Goal

Our goal is to fly as much as possible and get each youth at least 2 flights per day, weather permitting.

Bounds on Attendance

We are a volunteer organization and require youth members perform crew duties, assist with food preparation and clean-up. We also ask that family members (parents and or guardians) also be involved in the youth program to some level. We ask family members to help through the week based on skill and comfort level:

- |                     |                         |
|---------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. Meal preparation | 5. Flight instructor    |
| 2. Chaperone        | 6. Mentors              |
| 3. Mentoring        | 7. Ground school        |
| 4. Tow pilots       | 8. Errands /Grocery run |

Requirements for attendance:

- Minimum for 13 years old to attend w/o parent or guardian
- Must be enrolled as a full-time student in Jr High, High School or College
- Be a member of Caesar Creek Soaring Club 6 weeks prior to camp in order to fly and receive flight instruction.
- Completion of the CCYSA application and agreement from CCYSA Leadership on youth attendance
- Camp fee $300 with volunteer support (1 day minimum) $500 with-out volunteer support
  - Camp fees are paid directly to CCYSA and cover:
    - Camp attendance and campground fee
    - Food for youth and volunteer
    - T shirt for youth
    - Canoe trip (Wednesday mid-day)
  - Camp fee does not include flying cost
    - Flying costs are paid to Caesar Creek Soaring Club in accordance with the CCSC Schedule of Fees and Dues
